LEXCO

Explore a world of color. Energize your teams by placing LexCo desks with neighboring soft settings for a workspace that exceeds expectations.

The LexCo desking system inspires interaction and reciprocity by opening up the workspace, adding personality to your floorplan without compromising performance and comfort.

LEXCO

Make it Yours

Modular configurations set the stage for a playful and customized desking landscape of all heights, shapes, and sizes. Create a visual statement. Mix and match colors, materials, and finishes for work zones that are as unique as their occupants.

Durable in construction and unconstrained in purpose, LexCo supports high-performance technology without sacrificing clean lines and chic silhouettes. With unprecedented potential for customization, LexCo offers the canvas on which to paint your brand story.

SHOWCASE IDENTITY

Shape, color, and materiality can convey the essence of your brand as eloquently as words. Designed to showcase your individuality, LexCo's desk configurations let you share your brand story through your workspace, for a visual identity that makes every impression count.

Open spaces, thematic hubs, and personalized accents articulate connection, collaboration, and creativity, creating an environment that draws people together and invites them to stay.

Downtown Cool

These cool hues speak the language of collaboration, grounded by a deep natural frame color, subtly accentuating the product's form. The setting is softened by Sarto Screens in tonal greens, providing some gentle boundaries, bringing a calm sense of order and a fresh perspective for a harmonious blend of focused concentration and teamwork.

Soulful Warmth

Just as in nature, the warm honey palette accentuates energy and creativity. Fresh, natural and engaging, it encourages teamwork and collaboration, like drawing bees to their hive.

VIBRANT COLORS

“When 80% of human experience is filtered through the eyes, we understand that the choice of color is critical.”

Pantone Color Institute

As a cornerstone of visual identity, color reaches across language barriers to differentiate your brand and communicate your values. Research has shown that carefully curated color can also elicit emotion, inspire innovation, and spark connection, creating an environment where creativity thrives.

Drawing on subtle shades and bold hues, LexCo breaks away from uniform colors to bring a new sense of wonder to work life. Experiment with LexCo's customizations to mix and match different styles and hues, and discover a signature look that is all your own.

Dynamic Collaboration

The high-sit setting with its footrest platform invites colleagues to pop in for a comfortable huddle. Whether they prefer to sit or stand or alternate between the two, occupants can maintain eye contact with ease and comfort, allowing a dynamic flow of ideas.

HONEST APPROACH

Organizations are scaling fast in Asia. In markets like India and China, fast growth creates a demand for rapid turnaround, from design to completion of projects. Even so, it is more important than ever to consider the environmental impact. LexCo can be specified with SartoRaw, the Sarto Screen with the least material usage.

Focused on sustainable design, SartoRaw celebrates the qualities of raw PET with, or without, a simple pressed finish. with a simple pressed finish. By using PET fiber from recycled plastic bottles, SartoRaw brings a thoughtful, clean, and unpretentious look to the workplace in an effortless neutral shade.

LexCo 120-degree benches with screens offer visual privacy without sacrificing easy connectivity for communication and collaboration. This innovative setting offers a personal cocoon that embraces the occupant while optimizing the use of space.

Rock and Raw

Complement Lexco with SartoRaw PET screens to provide a perfect counterpoint to the deep purple edge of aubergine to make this bold statement, for an understated cool focal point for focused work.

EVERYDAY DELUXE

Sometimes, it is the finer details that give a space its personality and energy. LexCo adds a twist to the traditional meeting room, introducing an angled profile table leg with a distinctive and sophisticated silhouette.

The LexCo system offers an array of color choice to create a workspace that expresses your personality. In addition to seven renaissance colors inspired by the natural world, our new Lux paint range adds five further options for an edgier alternative to standard finishing, with a touch of metallic finesse to draw the eye.

Edgy Sophistication

The subtle gleam of Obsidian Lux paint enhances the contemporary lines of the table's angled leg, adding a touch of luxury that speaks of excellence and charged focus.

FINISHING TOUCHES

No workspace is complete without these desking essentials to declutter loose ends and add extra functionality, for a polished environment designed with daily productivity in mind.

Cable Management

Our high-capacity cable management solution accommodates hard or soft wiring and optional power and data separation with easy access for facilities management. Vertical covers neatly conceal the cables, bringing power from the floor to the bench.

Pair with Sarto Screens for Privacy

Partner LexCo configurations with Sarto screens to offer privacy and personal space. The Sarto portable screens also provide a built-in hook for bags and belongings.

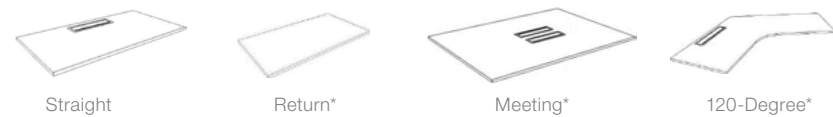

End of Run

These can be added to desking configurations to create an unobtrusive breakout space, encouraging ad hoc discussion within the team and welcoming other collaborators to drop in for a quick huddle.
