

BLOOM seating

Inspired by mid-century modern style, Bloom combines the warmth of wood veneer and the comfort of an upholstered seat.

Our Approach

Steelcase helps create inspiring shared destinations by offering an array of choices for design, materiality, and performance. To engage employees in working alone, together, or alone together, we’ve augmented our own portfolio with the inclusion of several brands to bring new choices for employees, designers, and decision makers.

m.a.d. & Steelcase

We’re delighted to announce a relationship with m.a.d. furniture design, a company created in 2010 by partners focused on bringing simple, modern design to the market. With elegant products light in scale yet structurally sound, the offering of chairs, stools and tables can help create desired destinations for modern work, workers, and the workplace.
