Sit Better.
Work Better.

Better Design
It's about more than a chair for us. It's our deep understanding of people, how they work, how they move and feel and what they need while they work. Our insights inspire new seating solutions, expressed with uncompromising quality, craftsmanship and sustainability.

Better Comfort
It's not just about that initial feeling when you first sit down. Dynamic comfort is about encouraging healthy movement to keep you engaged and focused without sacrificing support.

Better Choice
Steelcase offers one of the most comprehensive seating portfolios in the industry to support all the different ways people work. Our extensive range of styles and materiality options can meet your brand and budget needs.

Office Chairs

Inspired by human physiology and behaviors, our office chairs intuitively conform to you — encouraging movement while providing comfort and support.

Please® + Please® Air

Please task and desk chairs offer a one-of-a-kind backrest with independent upper and lower back controls, helping you achieve precise, targeted comfort — for wherever you sit and however long you're seated.

Steelcase Series® 2
