

Healthcare Design Conference 2015

We are proud to be the presenting sponsor for the Healthcare Design Conference again this year!

The conference will be in Washington, DC, November 14-17, 2015, at the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center.

Steelcase Health works with leading healthcare organizations to create places that help people experience greater connection, empathy and wellbeing, and the Healthcare Design Conference is the perfect place to demonstrate that.

We enjoyed our time as the exclusive presenting sponsor last year as well. Here are some photos from the 2014 conference:

See you in November!
