

Hybrid Work Webinar

Watch On Demand

Who should work in and away from the office? How can you improve remote collaboration? What should we change first in the office? What do you need to think about if shifting from assigned to unassigned desking?

Get real answers to real questions about the future of hybrid work. The recording of this interactive discussion includes:

- Behind-the-curtain conversations about how Steelcase is planning for the future of work.
- Hybrid considerations for people, process, place and technology.
- Audience poll results to let you see what others are thinking.
