

Videos Underutilized Library Space Becomes Campus Hot Spot

Underutilized Library Space Becomes Campus Hot Spot

The University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kansas wanted to breathe life back into its underutilized library. In partnership with Steelcase Education, campus leaders helped reimagine the existing space and create a vibrant, active and energizing in-between space where people can connect like never before.

Most Recent

Learning

The Future of School Design

Hybrid Work

New Sopra Banking Software Building: A Space Where People Belong

Interior Design Interviews Steelcase CEO Sara Armbruster

Interior Design Tours Steelcase WorkLife in Chicago

Our Return To Office

Learning

Cultivating Wellbeing: Six Pillars to Re-center Education

Tour a Smart + Connected Workplace

Learning

GVSU: Reimagining the Library Experience