Space Within a Space

The Neighbor™ family of seating features unique high backs and simple rectilinear lines to create separation within an open lounge space.

Neighbor chairs, tables and multi-seat units can be configured to provide privacy and define conversational places to connect with family while waiting.

Versatile Asset

Neighbor seats, tables and armrests configure in modular units to meet multiple needs, including alternative postures, bariatric support and privacy. Neighbor is easy to reconfigure as needs change over time.

Steel legs and frames provide structural integrity and ease of cleaning for high-traffic healthcare settings.

INSIGHT

Overcrowded and chaotic, conventional waiting areas can increase stress, anxiety and dissatisfaction.

Thoughtfully designed waiting places can support the right levels of privacy and interaction, to make these moments of transition more meaningful.

People and Belongings

To support active waiting, Neighbor welcomes people and their belongings with a range of seats and surfaces.

Separation and Intimacy

With its unique design, Neighbor provides separation from strangers, protecting personal privacy and creating intimacy among visiting family.
