Made for you.

Steelcase®

A Custom Design Studio at Steelcase

Every custom solution begins with a conversation. Through design, engineering and manufacturing expertise, Studio b works alongside your team to bring your vision to life with unmatched quality, craftsmanship and scale. The result becomes more than the bespoke products we deliver, it is a co-creative process and partnership.

Tailored Solutions

Every solution is purposefully tailored to solve your unique needs and design an outcome that's distinctly your own.

Built to Scale

Bespoke solutions backed by Steelcase's design, engineering and manufacturing expertise—delivering custom with the quality, craftsmanship and scale only Steelcase can provide.

Co-Creation Partnership

We work alongside your team from concept through completion, developing solutions shaped by collaboration every step of the way.

Proven Expertise

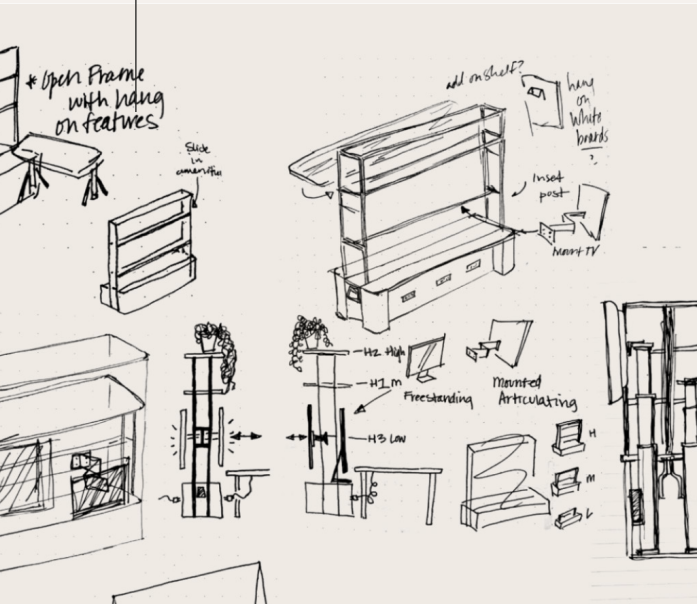

A dedicated team of designers, engineers and makers transforms ideas into thoughtfully crafted solutions with world-class quality.

Our Process

Every custom solution is built through a collaborative, proven process that transforms ideas into tailored outcomes.

Co-Create

We ideate, sketch and iterate through a series of co-creation sessions to design the best possible solution, together.

Clarify

We work with you to define your goals, align on requirements and assemble the right Studio b expertise to solve your unique challenge.

Build

Once the design is approved, we source the optimal materials and manufacturing to bring your custom solution to life, ensuring every detail meets our quality standards and delivery is seamless.

Purposefully Crafted Solutions

Every Studio b solution reflects a unique vision. Together, they represent the breadth of Studio b’s design, engineering and manufacturing expertise—bringing tailored solutions to life with the quality and craftsmanship of Steelcase.
